Naples, Florida –

The Garage Eatery, located in Islandia, NY, is more than just a place to stop and fill up.

In addition to being the Hauppauge Industrial Park's favorite daytime eatery, The Garage also serves the dining needs of the local business community, providing eat-in, take-out or delivery services, as well as last minute corporate catering.

Beyond the industrial park, The Garage also services the Ronkonkoma/MacArthur Airport Business District and the Central Islip Court Complexes, in addition to the Heartland Business District in Deer Park and many of the corporations in the 110 Corridor in Huntington.

"The Garage Eatery is a pretty busy place," notes Tom Jewell, Director of Sales at Caterease Catering and Event Management Software. "They book in the neighborhood of 60-100 events a day – many of which are corporate lunches. Beyond that, they also cater everything from small, private affairs to large gala events."

To manage its bustling business, The Garage turned to Caterease Catering and Event Management Software.

"Caterease is perfectly suited to handle the amount of business The Garage needs to manage," says Jewell. "Although the software can certainly help manage banquet rooms for on-premise catering facilities, it is also an ideal solution for off-premise operations. And whether a company is booking 5 events or 500, Caterease offers makes the data-entry and data-management quick and easy."

For The Garage Eatery, which caters corporate lunches for over 350 pharmaceutical and sales representatives and also operates the Met Life Corporate Cafeteria, data-entry and data-management need to be quick and easy.

"A company doing that volume of business doesn't have time to get bogged down in the minutia everyday data-entry. They need to get orders booked instantly. And they need to be able to keep track of those orders in an organized, logical way. Caterease offers easy-to-use tools to accomplish all that and more."

Events and event management companies run the gamut from small to very large. With The Garage Eatery and Caterease software, needs and expectations of any size can be met and exceeded.
