Ovations Food Service Expands Caterease Rollout

For Immediate Release
Tuesday, October 17, 2006

Naples, Florida –

Ovations Food Services, LP, the world-class food service contractor, has spent the past year installing Caterease Software to handle the catering and event management needs in many of its locations across North America. Last week, nine more sites were added to the list.

“Caterease is the perfect solution for companies like Ovations,” says Paul Skiera, Caterease Director of Sales. “Tools like our amazing New Event Wizard make booking events a snap. And the graphic Event Scheduler display allows their busy offices to quickly and easily keep track of all their parties – even exporting them instantly into Microsoft Outlook if they want.”

Ovations – with locations such as Nashville Convention Center, Ventura County Fairgrounds, London Civic Center, and California Exposition & State Fair – offers its clients exceptional attention to detail and outstanding quality. Each of its numerous locations boasts a creative, innovative team, capable of designing extravagant menus and providing each of their customers with a unique and memorable experience. To make its workload easier, this progressive corporation has turned to an equally progressive staple in the foodservice software industry – Caterease.

“There’s no doubt Caterease has more powerful features than any other program on the market,” Skiera notes. “But Caterease is the industry leader for one main reason – it’s incredibly easy to use.”

Skiera points out that when a company such as Ovations purchases Caterease, they can be confident that their personnel will be up and running quickly, without suffering through long, arduous learning curves.

“Big corporations and small companies alike want to know that implementing a new software program is not going to mean a lot of down time,” Skiera says. “With Caterease, users are normally booking events the same day they get the software installed. The program is very intuitively designed – features act and look exactly as you expect them to.”

For Ovations Food Services, this user-friendliness means they can focus their time on the customer satisfaction that they’ve become known for. For Caterease, it means its customers – such as Ovations and thousands of others – remain completely satisfied as well.
